The Lackawanna County Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division has announced that Kelly Lenahan, a personal injury attorney with Lenahan & Dempsey, has been named the recipient of the 2016 Margaret "Peggy" Gavin Award. The award is given annually to a young lawyer who, according to the Bar Association, "exemplifies service and dedication to the community, the courts and the bar association." The award was first given in 1998 to honor Attorney Margaret Gavin who passed away following a lengthy and courageous healthcare battle.

"I am honored to have been recognized by my fellow attorneys with this prestigious award," said Attorney Kelly Lenahan. "Peggy Gavin exemplified the highest standards of our profession and I am proud to accept this award that carries her name and honors her legacy."

Kelly Lenahan has been named a Rising Star by Pennsylvania Super Lawyers as published in Philadelphia Magazine. She represents the third generation of the Lenahan family to practice law at Lenahan & Dempsey.

Attorney Kelly Lenahan concentrates her practice on assisting the seriously injured. Kelly Lenahan offers free consultations and can be reached at 1-888-LENAHAN (1-888-536-2426).
